Judge Hand Decides Bids on Property in Bulk May Be Accepted.

In accordance with an order signed by Judge Augustus N. Hand in the United States District Court yesterday the assets of the J. B. Greenhut at the company's main store at Sixth avenue and Eighteenth street on August 17. Judge Hand's order is a confirmation of the report of Peter B. Olney, referee in bankruptcy, recommending the acceptance of conditional bids on the assets in bulk after the property has been auctioned off in parcels.

Only one creditor interposed an objection before Judge Hand yesterday to Referee Oney's plan.

jection before Judge Hand yesterday to Referee Olney's plan. Attorney Henry L. Scheuerman, representing Mrs. Blanche E. Vogel, widow of Henry Vogel, partner of Henry Siegel, protested that the plan of taking conditional bids on the property in bulk would stifle competitive bidding. It was prejudicial to the interests of the independent boncholders, Mr. Scheuerman said, and would aid the Greenhuts by releasing them from large liabilities. by releasing them from large liabilities through the payment of a totally in-adequate sum for the assets.
